

LOUDOUN COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT
P.O. Box 550
Leesburg, Virginia 20178
703-777-0270

Dear Circuit Court Patron:

The Loudoun County Circuit Court would like to provide you with this information to guide you in understanding the legal procedures for obtaining a divorce.

You will be responsible for preparing all of the necessary documents pertaining to your divorce case. PLEASE NOTE THAT FILL-IN-THE-BLANK FORMS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. All documents must comply with Va. Sup. Ct. R. 1:16, as in (FORM 9). We have provided in this packet the forms that are usually used in the Loudoun County Circuit Court. Not all of these forms may be appropriate for your specific case.

It is your responsibility to review and research the statutes and rules referenced in these pages to ensure that they are current.

The Loudoun County Circuit Court would like to extend its appreciation to the Fairfax County Circuit Court and the Fairfax County Bar Association for their assistance in the compiling of this divorce resource packet.

Loudoun County Circuit Court

PRO SE DIVORCE SUITS

“Pro se” means that a party to a lawsuit is representing himself or herself. All persons involved in divorce cases are strongly encouraged to consult with an attorney so that the legal proceedings and the effect of legal documents and orders can be fully explained to you. If you have children, property, or support issues which need to be decided by the Court and which have not been resolved by an agreement, you are not required to retain an attorney, but neither the Clerk’s Office personnel nor the judges’ law clerks can give you advice on how to proceed. If you proceed without legal counsel, you may unknowingly lose rights to custody or visitation, child or spousal support, distribution of property, or other legal claims arising out of your marriage. Furthermore, at trial the same rules will apply as if you had an attorney, and the Judge is not permitted to help you in presenting your case.

If you do not know your spouse's whereabouts, or if he/she is in jail for committing a felony, these are special circumstances which you should also address with an attorney.

“Uncontested divorce actions” are those in which the parties have agreed upon all issues before the Court, or those in which it is anticipated that only one side will actively participate. “No-fault divorce” suits are those in which the parties only ask for a divorce on the grounds that they have lived separate and apart for the period of time required by law.

The Clerk's Office cannot make recommendations for specific attorneys, but you can call:

The Virginia Lawyer State Bar Referral Service
1-800-552-7977

If you decide to proceed on your own, you will be expected to follow the same procedures as an attorney. If your case is uncontested it may take two to six months to complete your divorce even if there are no complications. If your case is contested, your case should be set by praecipe on the Scheduling Docket, and your case will usually take much longer than six months to complete.

You are responsible for preparing all documents to be submitted in the divorce. Please DO NOT ask Court personnel for legal advice or assistance. State law prohibits Court personnel from giving you legal advice or assistance.

Before you file for divorce, you may wish to review the appropriate divorce laws in the Virginia Code. The Virginia Code books are located in the Law at the Loudoun County Courthouse. The Virginia Code and Rules of The Supreme Court of Virginia are available on line at <http://legal.state.va.us/000/ske.htm>. A review of these laws may help you better understand the divorce process.

All contested divorce cases will proceed and be set by praecipe on the Scheduling Docket to obtain a final hearing date. If all issues, such as grounds for divorce and distribution of property are totally uncontested, a party may request a Judge of the Court to hear the evidence Ore Tenus (live testimony). This can be done only after filing, in proper form, the necessary documents and a Request for Ore Tenus Hearing, which are discussed below.

I. PROCEDURE

In order for you to obtain a divorce in Virginia, either you or your spouse must be a resident and domiciliary of the Commonwealth of Virginia for at least six months prior to filing suit. (Va. Code Ann. § 20-97).

In your Complaint, you must allege specific grounds upon which a divorce may be granted. The two most common grounds are no-fault divorces based upon either a six-month separation or a one-year separation. You are eligible for a six-month divorce ONLY IF you have entered into a written separation agreement and there are no minor children born of the parties, born of either party and adopted by the other, or adopted by both parties. These facts must be stated in the Complaint. In any no-fault divorce you and your spouse must have been separated for the required amount of time PRIOR TO FILING YOUR SUIT. This separation period must also be clearly alleged in your Complaint. You may NOT file your Complaint for Divorce before the appropriate separation period has expired or your case will be dismissed or could be determined to be invalid. If the case is dismissed, you will have to file for divorce again and pay another filing fee. You can, of course, also file a Complaint alleging a "fault" ground for divorce, if supported by the facts. All grounds for divorce are set out in Va. Code Ann. §§ 20-91 and 20-95.

In addition to stating the grounds and residency requirements, the Complaint must include the following allegations:

- current residences of both parties;
- the date and place of marriage;
- the names and dates of birth of all minor children born or adopted into the marriage;
- a statement that both parties are over eighteen (18) years of age; and,
- a statement of each party's military status.

PLEASE REMEMBER

- If you proceed pro se you will be representing yourself.
- The Clerk and the Court cannot advise or represent you.
- Your documents must be typed double-spaced on 8 1/2" by 11" white paper, allowing for 1 1/2 inch margins in all four directions.
- Printed on only one sided paper.
- If you send any documents to the Court, mail them to:

Clerk of the Circuit Court
P.O. Box 550
Leesburg, VA 20178
Attention: Civil Processing

If you wish to file documents personally or by any type of hand delivery, please bring them to the Clerk's Office Civil Division during regular business hours.

II. PREPARING & FILING YOUR COMPLAINT

A. REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

The Plaintiff (person starting the divorce) must file the following documents:

- An original Complaint and one copy of the Complaint for service. (FORMS 1)
- A completed VS-4 Form. This form is a statistical form that is required for all divorce filings before the divorce can be finalized. It must be completed properly in black ink. (If not attached herein, the VS-4 Form may be obtained from the Clerk's Office) The VS-4 must be legible. It cannot be accepted if there are any white-outs or hand made corrections. (FORM 2).

- Two copies of the completed “Domestic Case Coversheet” completed with names & addresses (you must provide your complete address unless the Court for good cause shown orders otherwise), of both parties, date of separation, and whether you believe this is a contested or uncontested divorce. (FORM 3)
- Filing fees and Sheriff Fees, if applicable. All Filing fees and Sheriff Service Fees are paid by cash, certified check or money order payable to the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

B. INITIAL FEES

Please visit the court’s website at: www.loudoun.gov/clerk to determine the filing fees.

C. CASE NUMBER

Your case will be given a case number as soon as it is filed. This is the number by which the Court references your case and it must appear on all documents regarding your divorce. The case number will consist of CL, & the number (e.g., 00001).

D. SERVICE

After you file the Complaint, you must determine how the Defendant will be served with the Complaint.

III. SERVING THE DEFENDANT (person you are seeking divorce from) WITH THE COMPLAINT

A. SERVICE OF PROCESS

Process in a divorce case may be served on the Defendant by any of the methods specified in Va. Code Ann. §8.01-296:

- personal service,
- posting on the residence, or
- service on a family member of the household over sixteen years old.

Service may be by a Deputy Sheriff or a person authorized to serve process under Va. Code Ann. §8.01-293. If service is by the Sheriff or a Private Process Server you must request the Clerk to prepare a Summons to attach to and be served on the Defendant along with a copy of the Complaint. The Complaint and the Summons are known as the “process” of the divorce action.

A Defendant may also accept or waive service pursuant to Va. Code Ann. §20-99.1:1 by signing a proof of service or an “Acceptance of Service” indicating that the defendant has received the papers in the suit. A Defendant may also waive service of process by filing an Answer to the Complaint. (FORM 4)

B. TYPES OF SERVICE

1. ACCEPTANCE OR WAIVER OF SERVICE:

- Pursuant to Va. Code Ann. §20-99.1:1, a Defendant may accept service by signing an "Acceptance/Waiver of Service of Process and Waiver of Future Service of Process and Notice" – (FORM 4). This must be signed under oath before a notary public or deputy clerk and it cannot be done prior to the filing of the suit.
- This form can be accessed through the website of the Virginia Judicial System at:

http://www.courts.state.va.us/forms/circuit/cc_1406_0106.pdf or (FORM 4).

2. SERVICE BY SHERIFF:

- If the Defendant lives in the Commonwealth of Virginia, a Virginia Sheriff can serve process on the Defendant if the Sheriff's fee is included with the initial filing.

Fee for Sheriff Service: $12.00 for each service

Payment is made by certified check or money order payable to:
Clerk of the Circuit Court

- The Sheriff will give the person that is being served a copy of the Complaint and the Summons. The Sheriff will execute the proof of Service of the process and shall file the Proof of Service with the Clerk of the Court within seventy-two (72) hours of service.
- If the Defendant is a non-resident of Virginia, you will need to contact the authorities in the state and locality in which the Defendant resides in order to learn of the local regulations for service. You may wish to have the Defendant accept out-of-state service. This can be done using the "Acceptance/Waiver of Service of Process and Waiver of Future Service of Process and Notice" (FORM 4) mentioned above. This must be signed under oath before a notary public and it cannot be done prior to the filing of the suit.

3. PRIVATE PROCESS SERVICE:

- The Private Process Server will give the Defendant a copy of the Complaint and the Summons. The Process Server will execute an Affidavit of Service and must file the Affidavit with the Clerk of the Court where the matter is pending within seventy-two (72) hours of service.
- Return by person serving process pursuant to Va. Code Ann. §8.01-325 – "If service by any other person qualified under Va. Code Ann. §8.01-293, whether service made in or out of the Commonwealth, his affidavit of such qualifications; the date and manner of service and the name of the party served; and stamped, typed or printed on the return of process, an annotation (statement) that the service was by a private server, and the name, address and telephone number of the server."
- The Affidavit by Private Process Server must include the following:
 - A statement that the serving person is duly authorized to make service in accordance with Va. Code Ann. §8.01-293;
 - State that the process server or the person serving the process is over eighteen years of age;
 - State that the person serving the process is not a party or otherwise interested in the subject matter or controversy (Va. Code Ann. §8.01-293);
 - The date and manner in which service was made;
 - The name of the party served;
 - An annotation that service was by private process server; and,
 - Name, address and telephone number of private process server.

4. SERVICE BY PUBLICATION:

- Service of process may be accomplished by an "Order of Publication." This may be done in cases in which the Defendant is a non-resident or a Defendant whose whereabouts are unknown after you have diligently (made all efforts) tried to locate him or her. Va. Code Ann. §20-104 and §8.01-316, et seq.

The Clerk's Office maintains a list of newspapers approved for publication in accordance with Va. Code Ann. 8.01-324. An Order of Publication must be published in a newspaper prescribed by the Court pursuant to Va. Code §8.01-317. The number of times that the publication must be in the newspaper is once a week for four successive weeks.

- Please note that if service is by publication, the only resolution you can achieve is a termination of your marriage and incorporation (inclusion) by the Court of any written agreements reached by you and your spouse. If you have no agreements, the Court can only terminate your marriage but cannot resolve other issues.

Forms for the Affidavit and Order of Publication can be obtained from the Clerk's Office.

- Documents & Fees Required to complete service by publication:
 - Original Order of Publication
 - Affidavit notarized by Plaintiff or attorney stating the following:
 - the individual is a non-resident individual; or
 - the individual cannot be found, that due diligence has been used to locate the party to be served but the efforts have been unsuccessful; or
 - the individual cannot be served with court process, and that a return has been filed by the Sheriff which shows that the process has been in his or her hands for twenty-one (21) days and the Sheriff has been unable to make service.
 - An envelope addressed to the individual being served by publication at their last known address, if known.
 - A completed certified mail receipt or registered mail receipt and appropriate fees for such mailing. Certified or registered mail can be sent by the post office and after the person receives what you sent, the post office sends you a receipt.
 - A copy of the pleading to be served by publication.
 - Certified/Registered Mail Fees payable to the Clerk of The Circuit Court by cash, certified check (bank check) or money order.

Certified Mail (Green return receipt card – within the U.S.) $ 5.00

Registered Mail (Pink return receipt card -outside the U.S.) $10.00

- For publication in the newspaper you choose, you must submit a check payable to the specific newspaper. If additional fees are required, the newspaper will bill the Plaintiff or counsel. The newspapers used at the Loudoun County Circuit Court for service by publication are: The Leesburg Today, Loudoun Times Mirror and Washington Examiner.
- The Court will process the Order of Publication documentation, with the newspaper for publication.
- Upon completion of publication, the publisher will file an affidavit with the dates of publication and a copy of the published order with the Clerk of the Court in accordance with Va. Code Ann. §8.01-325. Upon receipt of the "proof of publication" the Clerk will complete a certificate of compliance and place it in the case file in accordance with Va. Code Ann. §8.01-317.

- If service of the Complaint is made by publication, a court reporter is required at the divorce hearing in accordance with Va. Sup. Ct. Rule 3:1, unless the Defendant files an answer, waiver or other formal appearance. The Plaintiff is responsible for making arrangements for a court reporter to be present. However, the Court records the proceedings electronically. If a court reporter is unavailable, a compact disc containing the recordation of the proceedings is available for purchase through the Clerk's office at 703-777-0270. The Plaintiff is responsible to have the recording transcribed, notarized and filed with the Clerk before the final decree can be entered by a judge.

IV. AFTER SERVICE OF PROCESS

- After serving process, the Defendant may choose to waive further notice of the proceedings by executing a waiver form. Again, this can be done using Form 4- Acceptance/Waiver of Service of Process & Waiver of Future Service of Process and Notice. A copy of this form is available in the Clerk's Office, can be accessed through the website of the Virginia Judicial System at http://www.court.state.va.us/forms/circuit/cc_1406_0106.pdf, or FORM 4. The form must be signed under oath in front of a Notary Public or Deputy Clerk of the Circuit Court. (Note: The Waiver of Notice cannot be signed by the Defendant prior to the filing of the Complaint.)

V. PROCEEDING WITH THE DIVORCE ACTION

- A. CONTESTED DIVORCES: These cases will be set for trial on all contested issues, by placing the matter on the Scheduling Docket to obtain a trial date.
- B. UNCONTESTED DIVORCES: The only cases that may proceed on the ore tenus divorce docket are purely uncontested matters. These are matters where all property, custody, child support and spousal support rights are resolved, and neither party is going to claim any fault grounds for divorce, and where neither party is going to put on any evidence of the facts and circumstances leading to the dissolution of the marriage. Cases may be scheduled for the ore tenus divorce docket by filing a praecipe with the clerk and notice. The ore tenus divorce docket is described elsewhere in this book.
- C. RESTORATION OF FORMER NAME – Va. Code Ann. §20-121.4: If one of the parties asks either in the Complaint or in any motion filed with or after the Complaint to resume their maiden or former name, an additional fee for recording of a name change is required. When the Final Decree of Divorce from the bond of matrimony is signed, the Court may restore the party's maiden or former name in a separate order meeting the requirements of Va. Code Ann. §8.01-217, provided the proposed order changing the name is submitted along with the final decree of divorce.
- D. PRIVACY ADDENDUM – VA. CODE ANN. §20-121.03: Any petition, pleading, motion, order, or decree filed under this chapter, including any agreements of the parties or transcripts (written record of testimony), shall not contain the social security number of any party or of any minor child of any party, or any financial information of any party that provides identifying account numbers for specific assets, liabilities, accounts, or credit cards. Such information if required by law to be provided to a governmental agency or required to be recorded for the benefit or convenience of the parties, shall be contained in a separate addendum filed by the attorney or party. Such separate addendum (form) shall be used to distribute the information only as required by law. Such addendum shall otherwise be made available only to the parties, their attorneys, and to such other persons as the court in its discretion may allow. The attorney or party who prepares or submits a petition, pleading, motion, agreement, order, or decree shall ensure that any information protected pursuant to this section is removed prior to filing with the clerk and that any separate addendum is incorporated (included) by referring back to the petition, pleading, motion, agreement order or decree.

- Identification of Private Addendum –The complete order or decree, public and private parts, must be submitted simultaneously (at the same time) to the court for entry. The private addendum needs to be printed (FORM 6) and must be sealed in the case file in an envelope.
- The addendum may be in a format of a pleading that has in bold print “PRIVATE ADDENDUM PURSUANT TO VA. CODE §20-121.03”. Samples of a Final Decree of Divorce are attached for six month separation and one year separation. (FORMS 5).
- The Private Addendum recommended by the Supreme Court of VA- state form CC-1426 can be accessed through the Web-Site of the Virginia Judicial System. http://www.courts.state.va.us/forms/circuit/cc_1426_0705.pdf or (FORM 6).

E. ORE TENUS HEARING: If all issues are uncontested, a party may request to have the Court hear evidence ore tenus. The Ore Tenus Hearing Instructions and Request for Ore Tenus Hearing are in (FORMS 7) of this resource book.

1. BEFORE THE ORE TENUS HEARING

At the time the Request for Ore Tenus Hearing is filed, the party filing the Request must submit with the request,

- Original proposed Final Decree of Divorce;
- Name Change Order to resume maiden or former name, if applicable;
- Copy of any Separation Agreement, if applicable; (the original Separation Agreement should be presented to the Court at the hearing.)
- Private Addendum containing the parties social security numbers;
- VS-4 form; (completed legibly in black ink and no white out on form)
- Waiver of Notice or Proof of Service, if applicable.

The Decree must contain the endorsement of each party who is legally entitled to notice of the ore tenus hearing and who will not be appearing at the hearing, unless the moving party (person requesting the hearing) will be serving the proposed decree on the other party along with the notice of the date and time of the ore tenus hearing. A party is not entitled to legal notice of the hearing if that party: (1) has signed a waiver of notice of entry of the Final Decree of Divorce; or, (2) has accepted or waived service of process and has not filed an Answer in the suit; or, (3) was served by publication and has not filed any papers in the suit other than any waivers; or, (4) has signed a waiver of all further notice. The original of any Separation Agreement should be presented to the Court at the ore tenus hearing.

The file will be reviewed prior to the hearing. If it is incomplete, then the Court may decline to hear the case.

2. AT THE ORE TENUS HEARING

The moving party must be prepared to present evidence to support every allegation in the Complaint through the testimony of the moving party and A CORROBORATING WITNESS (other than your spouse). A corroborating witness is a witness who has direct personal knowledge of the information (not simply what you or others have told the witness) and can testify to the information outlined in FORM 7B. The witness' knowledge must be based on something more than the information given to the witness in preparation for the hearing. The corroborating witness must appear at the time of the hearing. It is the responsibility of the moving party to make certain that the witness can be present on the hearing date. The presiding Judge cannot serve as an attorney, and the moving party must be prepared to ask the relevant questions. A copy of general sample questions are in FORM 7B. The questions asked of the witness must support the allegations in the Complaint.

3. FINAL DECREE:

If the case requires the presence of the court reporter at the hearing pursuant to law (court reporter only required when service is by publication and the Defendant has not filed a pleading, waiver or entered an appearance), one party or both parties must arrange on their own (not through the court) for a court reporter to be present at the hearing and to pay for the reporter and a transcript. If a transcript is required, the Final Decree will not be entered until the transcript of the hearing is filed with the Circuit Court. Upon receipt of the transcript, the Final Decree along with the transcript is submitted to the Judge that heard the matter at the ore tenus hearing for entry.

VI. ENTRY OF FINAL DECREE

Once a Judge has signed the Final Decree of Divorce, the Plaintiff may receive one free certified (official) copy from the Court. To receive this copy, a self-addressed, stamped envelope must be included when filing the final decree of divorce.

Pursuant to 20-78.2 interest shall accrue on the arrearage at the judgment rate as established by 6.1-330.54 unless the obligee, in a writing submitted to the court, waives the collection of interest.

15. Notice is hereby given that on and after July 1, 1994, the Department of Social Services may, pursuant to Chapter 19 of Title 63.2 of the 1950 Code of Virginia, as amended, and in accordance with Section 20-108.2 and Section 63.2-1921 of the 1950 Code of Virginia, as amended, initiate a review of the amount of support ordered by any Court.

16. If any arrearages for child support, including interest or fees, exist at the time the youngest child included in the order emancipates, payments shall continue in the total amount due (current support plus amount applied toward arrearages) at the time of emancipation until all arrearages are paid.

17. Notice is hereby given that, in cases enforced by the Department of Social Services, the Department of Motor Vehicles may suspend or refuse to renew the driver's license of any person upon receipt of notice from the Department of Social Services that the person (i) is delinquent in the payment of child support by 90 days or in an amount of $5,000 or more or (ii) has failed to comply with a subpoena, summons, or warrant relating to paternity or child support proceedings.

18. Beneficiary designations for any death benefit, as defined in subsection B of § 20-111.1 of the Code of Virginia, made payable to a former spouse may or may not be automatically revoked by operation of law upon the entry of a final decree of annulment or divorce. If a party intends to revoke any beneficiary designation made payable to a former spouse following the annulment or divorce, the party is responsible for following any and all instructions to change such beneficiary designation given by the provider of the death benefit. Otherwise, existing beneficiary designations may remain in full force and effect after the entry of a final decree of annulment or divorce.

And nothing further remaining to be done herein, it is ORDERED that this cause is stricken from the docket and the papers placed among the ended cases.

(FORM 7A)
LOUDOUN COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT
ORE TENUS* HEARING INSTRUCTIONS

1. All persons involved in divorce cases are strongly encouraged to consult with an attorney so that the legal effects of these proceedings can be fully explained to each litigant. If you proceed without legal counsel, you may forever unknowingly waive your rights to custody or visitation, child or spousal support, equitable distribution of property, and other legal claims arising out of your marriage.
2. All divorce cases will proceed and be set for trial through the Clerk's Office. However, if all issues, such as grounds for divorce and distribution of property, are totally uncontested, a party may, by filing a praecipe with the clerk and where appropriate, a notice.
3. At the time the Request for Ore Tenus Hearing is filed, the party filing the Request must submit the following with the request:
 - Original proposed Final Decree of Divorce
 - Name Change Order to resume maiden or former name, if applicable.
 - Copy of any Separation Agreement, if applicable. The original Separation Agreement should be presented to the Court at the hearing.
 - Private Addendum containing the parties social security numbers
 - VS-4 form (completed legibly in black ink)
 - Waiver of Notice/Proof of Service

The Decree must contain the endorsement of each party who is legally entitled to notice of the ore tenus hearing and who will not be appearing at the hearing, unless the moving party intends to serve the other party with Notice of the date and time of the ore tenus hearing and a copy of the proposed Decree. (Note that proof of service of the Notice and the Final Decree will have to be presented at the ore tenus hearing unless Acceptance of Service or Waiver of Notice has been filed.)

4. At the ore tenus hearing, the moving party and a corroborating witness (other than the spouse) must present the evidence necessary to meet the requirements of Virginia law. The presiding judge cannot serve as an attorney, so the moving party must be prepared to ask the relevant questions. A copy of general sample questions can be found in FROM 8B.

The Judge may refuse to hear the case or enter any orders in the event the appropriate procedures have not been followed and the evidence does not support the divorce.

(FORM 7B)

SAMPLE QUESTIONS FOR UNCONTESTED DIVORCE

QUESTIONS FOR PARTY:

1. State your full name and address.
2. State for at least the six months prior to the filing of the Complaint for Divorce, all addresses where you have resided. (Note: if it is the other party upon whom jurisdiction is grounded, then ask this question regarding the residency and domicile of the other party.)
3. So for at least six months prior to the filing of the Complaint for Divorce on (DATE), have you been a bona fide resident and domiciliary of the Commonwealth of Virginia? (Note: if it is the other party upon whom jurisdiction is grounded, then ask this question regarding the residency and domicile of the other party.)
4. Are you currently married to (Spouse's Name)?
5. Where does your spouse currently reside?
6. Have either of you been active duty members of the Armed Forces of the United States or its allies at any time during the pendency of this suit?
7. Are you and your spouse both over the age of eighteen?
8. Were you married on (Date) in (Place)?
9. Were there any children born or adopted of your marriage? (If Yes, ask names and dates of birth of each child)
10. Did you and your spouse separate on or about (Date).
11. At the time of the separation was it the intent of at least one of you that it would be a permanent separation which would ultimately lead to a divorce?
12. Has that intent continued on the part of at least one of you up until the present date?
13. Have you, in fact, remained separate and apart, without any cohabitation and without any interruption since (Date of Separation)?
14. I am handing you a document which will be identified as Plaintiff's Exhibit No.1. Is this your Separation Agreement (or Property Settlement Agreement)?
15. Can you identify the signatures on that document? Is that your signature?
16. Is that your spouse's signature?
17. Does this Agreement resolve all issues of property and support (and possibly custody) arising out of your marriage to one another?
18. Are there any issues left for this court to decide?
19. Is it your desire that the Court affirm, ratify and incorporate, but not merge, this Agreement into the Final Decree of Divorce? (ASK THE COURT TO RECEIVE THE AGREEMENT IN EVIDENCE.)
20. Are you asking the Court to grant you a Final Decree of Divorce a vinculo matrimonii based on the fact that the two of you have lived separate and apart for a period in excess of one year (OR SIX MONTHS, if you have a signed separation agreement and have no minor children)?
21. Is there any hope or probability of a reconciliation?

QUESTIONS FOR WITNESS:

1. State your full name and address please?
2. Are you acquainted with the Plaintiff in this action?
3. What is your relationship?
4. How long have you known him/her?
5. Does the Plaintiff currently reside at (ADDRESS)?
6. For at least six months prior to filing the Complaint for Divorce, please state all addresses where the Plaintiff has resided. (Note: if it is the other party upon whom jurisdiction is grounded, then ask this question regarding the residency and domicile of the other party.)
7. So for at least six months prior to the filing of the Complaint for Divorce on (DATE), was he/she a bona fide resident and domiciliary of the Commonwealth of Virginia? (Note: if it is the other party upon whom jurisdiction is grounded, then ask this question regarding the residency and domicile of the other party.)
8. Is the Plaintiff currently married to (spouse's name)?
9. Have you met the Defendant? Would you know him/her by sight?
10. Are both Mr. and Mrs. (NAME) over the age of eighteen?
11. Have either of them been active duty members of the Armed Forces of the United States or its allies at any time during the pendency of this suit?
12. Is it your understanding that they were married on (Date) in (Place)?
13. Were there any children born or adopted of their marriage? (IF YES, ASK NAMES AND AGES)
14. Did they separate on or about (Date)?
15. At the time of the separation, was it the intent of at least one of them that it would be a permanent separation that would ultimately lead to a divorce?
16. Has that intent continued on the part of at least one of them up until the present date?
17. How did you become aware of the separation?
18. Have you had an opportunity to visit in the Plaintiff's or Defendant's home since (Date of Separation)?
19. How often have you visited with the Plaintiff/Defendant in his/her home?
20. In any of your visits to his/her home, have you ever seen anything which would indicate to you that his/her spouse was continuing to live there after (Date of Separation)?
21. How frequently do you speak with the Plaintiff/Defendant either by telephone or in person?
22. In any of your conversations with him/her, have you ever heard anything which would indicate to you that after the (Date of Separation), he/she had reconciled with his wife/her husband and resumed living together with her/him?
23. Do you believe you have a close enough relationship with the Plaintiff/Defendant that if he/she had reconciled with his wife/her husband and resumed living with her/him, that you would have been aware of that fact?

24. So, to your knowledge, have they lived separate and apart without any cohabitation and without interruption from (Date of Separation) up to the present date?
25. Do you believe there is any hope or probability of a reconciliation between them?
